CITY NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR 2014 SUSTAINABILITY AWARDS

INDIANAPOLIS – Mayor Greg Ballard, the Office of Sustainability and the McKinney Green Initiatives Fund are now accepting applications for the 2014 Indianapolis Sustainability Awards. The annual Sustainability Awards inspire innovation, showcase impact, reward leadership and promote education around the principles of sustainability.

Any organization or individual is encouraged to apply. No project is too small. The deadline for application submissions is February 12, 2014.

"The annual Sustainability Awards are a chance to recognize the ideas and initiatives that are making Indy one of the most sustainable cities in the country," said Mayor Greg Ballard.

Award winners will be celebrated at the Sustainability Awards dinner in April 2014. The event is the Office of Sustainability's annual fundraiser to support the City's Sustainability Fund, which raises money to support local sustainability initiatives throughout the Indianapolis community. Sponsorships are available now and tickets will go on sale in the coming weeks.
